ANNOTATION

New challenge

The new Circular Economy Strategy of the UE.

The current regulation provides for the following (new) recycling rates:

- by 2025, the preparing for re-use and the recycling of municipal waste shall be increased to a minimum of 55% by weight;
- by 2030, the preparing for re-use and the recycling of municipal waste shall be increased to a minimum of 60% by weight.
- by 2035, the preparing for re-use and the recycling of municipal waste shall be increased to a minimum of 65% by weight.

It is important to find out, with witch methods theses very ambitious recycling rates can be achieved.

This is also one of the topics of my presentation
